

I wish I had done better Sandro Valente, The Rockabilly Bones

Sitting down here all alone my thoughts a heavy load,
I've lost the ground, I'm falling down, I'm feelin' like a toad.
I've hurt the girl who gave me love and trust with all her might.
I wish I had done better all the time.

I'm looking here, I'm looking there, I'm looking everywhere
Trying to get right back on track and find myself again
I've hurt the girl who gave me love and trust with all her might.
I wish I had done better all the time.

Thinking of what I've done since then fulfills my life no more.
As if somebody knocks me out while lying on the floor.
All the dreams that I had, are no longer mine.
I wish I had done better all the time.

I'm looking here, I'm looking there, I'm looking everywhere
Trying to get right back on track and find myself again
All the dreams that I had, are no longer mine.
I wish I had done better all the time.

Restless spirit, troubled mind, that's what I am today.
That's why I have a rotten life, this is the price to pay.
Desperately fighting against the ghosts of my old times.
I wish I had done better all the time.

I'm looking here, I'm looking there, I'm looking everywhere
Trying to get right back on track and find myself again
Desperately fighting against the ghosts of my old times.
I wish I had done better all the time.
I wish I had done better all the time.
I wish I had done better all the time.
