

Dear God Sandro Valente, The Rockabilly Bones

I'm sitting right here so doggone alone
My life is going on
I'm sitting right here so doggone alone
My life is going on
Where have I been, where do I go?
I don't know what to tell you.
But it's for sure I walk alone
My trust in you has gone.

I left my wife, I left my home
Oh god please here my moan
A honky tonk and me alone
My life still going on
I don't know who I am dear god
Please help me understand this
But it's for sure I walk alone
My trust in you has gone.

I don't know who I am dear god
I don't know if you're there
But if you're real, please understand and help me, help me!!

I wonder did I right or wrong to turn away from you
The trust I had, the faith I felt
Both completely gone
I don't know which's the way to go
Lord help me understand this 'cause what I know, this is for sure
Without you I walk alone

I don't know who I am dear god
I don't know if you're there
But if you're real, please understand and
help me, help me!!

Help me
Help me
Won't you the hell help me!!!!
